Regulations Governing the Selection of Distinguished Alumni of the College of Management, National Chung Cheng University

Approved at the 80th College Affairs Meeting on March 19, 2013 (ROC 102).

Article 1. To recognize outstanding achievements or contributions of alumni of the College of Management, National Chung Cheng University (hereinafter, the College) and inspire future generations, the College establishes these Regulations.

Article 2. Any alumnus or alumna of the College who meets one of the following qualifications may be nominated as a Distinguished Alumni candidate: (1) has made a major contribution to the development of the College; (2) has achieved outstanding accomplishments in a profession or career; or (3) has made a special contribution to the nation or society.

Article 3. Selection method: (1) Selection is in principle conducted once each year. Candidates may be nominated by any one of the following: 1. the Dean, Associate Dean, department Chair, or degree-program Chair; 2. an alumni association of a department, master's degree program, or in-service master's program; 3. joint nomination by at least two College faculty members; or 4. joint nomination by at least two alumni of a department, master's degree program, or in-service master's program. (2) The list of Distinguished Alumni nominees shall be approved by the College Affairs Meeting, with no more than seven persons selected each year.

Article 4. The nomination period is January 1 through March 31 each year. The nominator shall complete one nomination form and submit it, together with documentation of the nominee's concrete outstanding achievements and relevant supporting materials, to the College Office.

Article 5. Recognition shall be provided by: (1) public recognition in the year of selection; and (2) publication of the recipient's concrete achievements on the College website to highlight the recipient's accomplishments or contributions.

Article 6. These Regulations shall take effect after approval by the College Affairs Meeting. The same procedure shall apply to amendments.
